

THE ASSOCIATION OF LONDON CLUBS HOSPITALITY DURING 2011 SUMMER CLOSURE

The following is a list of members offering hospitality to Association Clubs which close during August together with any comments submitted by the Clubs. Prior to taking advantage of hospitality, the Secretaries of the Clubs involved are recommended to agree in advance the terms under which hospitality is offered.

All Clubs require current membership cards or introductory letters. All accounts should be paid on presentation at the time of Members using the facilities of any of the Clubs and before departure.

Army & Navy Club will be delighted to offer hospitality to Members of the ALC Clubs during their respective closures upon presentation of their membership card and a card of introduction. We will remain open throughout the summer and a normal service will operate during weekdays. However, at weekends, the following outlets will be open. Breakfast in the Pall Mall Room: 0745-1000 Saturday; 0815-1000 Sunday. Lunch 1200-2300 Saturday; (Snacks only in the Ian Jacob Bar) 1200-2100 Sunday. Dinner in the Coffee Room 1745-2100 Saturday only. Strict dress code during the weekdays and children under 8 are not allowed in the Club. Sunday service on Bank Holidays. All bills should be settled on departure.

Cavalry and Guards Club would be pleased to welcome members from other ALC Clubs during August (we accept Ladies and children over 12 (under 12 by arrangement).

City University Club is open throughout the summer and is delighted to welcome members of other Clubs to lunch. The club is open from 12.00 noon to 4.00 pm Monday to Friday.

East India Club is delighted to welcome members of other London Clubs when their Clubhouses are closed over the summer holiday period. Please make reservations in advance for accommodation and dining and present a valid membership card on arrival. Jacket and tie for gentleman and smart attire for ladies at all times. No casual wear. There is a Jazz Brunch every Sunday at a cost of £27.50 per person 12.30-4.00 pm. No children under 8 years.

Goodenough Club is open through the summer and would be delighted to welcome members of other clubs to use our accommodation and dining facilities. Reservations can be made through our website www.club.goodenough.ac.uk by email to me at vikki@goodenough.ac.uk or by phone to 020 7837 8831.

Lansdowne Club is very happy to welcome ALC Club members to its dining and bedroom facilities during the August, Monday – Friday. The Club has a relaxed dress code; jacket and tie are not required.

National Liberal Club is open throughout the summer, apart from weekends and Bank Holidays, and is pleased to offer hospitality. Mondays to Fridays, to ALC members. Weather permitting, luncheon and dinner may be taken on the terrace which overlooks the Thames. No children admitted under 14 (during August not under 8). Not residential.

Naval Club is open in August and offers facilities to other ALC members. During August there will be a 20% reduction in accommodation, continental breakfast. Please note Dining Room undergoing refurbishment.

The In & Out (Naval & Military Club) is open throughout August and we will be delighted to offer our facilities to other ALC members. On arrival we will require visitors to demonstrate that they are members of an ALC Club and when making a booking, to quote their own Club's name. The full service will be available throughout August. This comprises: bedrooms, Coffee Room (breakfast, lunch and dinner), Down & Out (informal, dress down, bar and brasserie), business centre, courtyard, etc. Gym facilities are available free of charge to residents but a day charge is made for non-residents. Please note that we run a limited service on Saturday and Sunday with breakfast in the Coffee Room and lunch from the Down & Out. There is no evening service but a limited selection of drinks can be purchased from the Night Bar. Exchange number for all bookings: 020 7827 5757 or email reception@navalandmilitaryclub.co.uk. For those looking further ahead our bed, continental breakfast and 24 hour Night Bar service is available throughout the Christmas period. For more information, please look at our website: www.theinandout.co.uk

New Cavendish Club is open through August and would welcome both male and female members from ALC Clubs. During August a full dinner menu and accommodation is available as well as reduced weekend rates. Reservations can be made on 020 7723 0391 or reservations@newcavendishclub.co.uk.

Oriental Club is open throughout the summer holiday period and will be delighted to welcome members of other London Clubs when their Clubhouses are closed. Long-sleeved, collared shirt with a tie is required at all times, together with a letter of introduction or membership card to be shown on arrival. All public rooms are open to Ladies and Gentlemen alike. Children have to be a minimum of 11 years old. Breakfast, lunch and dinner are served every weekday; breakfast only at weekends. Light refreshments and sandwiches are available in all of the Drawing Rooms on the first floor throughout the day.

Royal Society of Medicine welcomes members from other Clubs throughout August. Use of accommodation and dining facilities including bar and cafe to all ALC members. Dress code is smart casual or suits.

ALC/SC27/05/2011